Season 1 Episode Guide — Document 09

A Daytime Drama

Episodes #0001–#0170

Monday, January 5, 2026 – Friday, September 4, 2026

Guide Notes

- Story time runs with air time. Unless noted, an episode takes place on its air date. Weekend events (the Oscars, the Tonys, Victor's 80th) air on the next weekday with the story date noted.
- SWEEPS marks every episode that airs during a Nielsen sweeps period: February (Eps #0019–#0038), May (#0076–#0095), and July (#0120–#0138). See Document 01, Section 9.
- ★ marks an event episode, one of the 17 standalone-leaning episodes that make up 10% of the season.
- Cast lists every character in the episode: the headline story plus that day's runner scenes. Document 07's episode counts come from these lists.
- Days with no new episode: Thu Mar 19 (Pre-empted: NCAA Tournament); Fri Mar 20 (Pre-empted: NCAA Tournament); Fri Apr 3 (Pre-empted: network special); Mon May 25 (Encore: Memorial Day); Fri Jul 3 (Encore: Independence Day (observed)).

January 2026

#0001 ★ — Monday, January 5, 2026

6:10 AM: a body surfaces in the Chattahoochee by the Paces Ferry Road bridge; Det. Jeremy Jackson catches it as his wife, Chief Elxa Jackson, arrives. 8:00 PM: Marc-Anthony's 34th birthday gala at Summit House. Victor unveils the Succession Covenant and names Marc President & COO of The Donohue Company, effective immediately. Martin's champagne glass shatters in his hand. Across the ridge, Esther watches the livestream in the dark. Final beat: Harmony, alone at her laptop, hits “publish” as The Tea Kettle ATL. And at 11:59 PM, alone in his study, Marc opens a new leather notebook and writes one word on the first page: 2028.
